

Algoma Fall Festival

Enrich your brand
through your support
of arts and culture.

Entertainment on Fire!

For more than half a century, the Algoma Fall Festival has brought world-renowned multi-disciplinary artists to Sault Ste. Marie, enhancing our local arts and culture amid Northern Ontario's breathtaking autumn colours every October.

Thanks to the dedication of the Algoma Arts Festival Association, our community is introduced to new experiences, ignited with creativity, and educated through our Festival of Learning.

Join us in continuing this legacy of cultural enrichment and inspiration in our community.

Our Supporters Make the Festival Possible...

"a great local tradition"

Village Media and Accretive Studio are proud champions of the community. We work hard to support meaningful local events, charitable causes, and community building initiatives. Algoma Fall Festival is all that and more; we are truly fortunate to be a part of such a great local tradition and are proud to once again be the official Festival Presenters of the Algoma Fall Festival!

"confident learners and caring citizens"

The Algoma District School Board believes in building relationships and values the rich partnerships and opportunities that The Algoma Fall Festival has to offer. These unique experiences provide our students with inspiration to participate and engage in their learning. Its Festival of Learning offers perspective to students that will allow them to apply their knowledge and explore the curriculum beyond the classroom. It's part of our commitment to ensuring that all students reach their fullest potential as 'confident learners and caring citizens'.

"a proud sponsor for over 40 years"

We've been a proud sponsor of the Algoma Fall Festival for over 40 years. Vibrant arts and culture are key to an attractive and progressive city and we recognize the Festival's work, their role in the community, their efforts to contribute to economic growth and their commitment to providing our residents with performances and events that inspire and enrich our lives.

Connect with us today!

We'd love to discuss partnership opportunities with your organization to help support the arts in Sault Ste. Marie.
